

CASE STUDY

Profile

Inspire Brands is an American fast-food restaurant franchise company and owns the Arby's, Buffalo Wild Wings, Sonic Drive-In, Jimmy John's, Mister Donut, Dunkin' Donuts, and Baskin-Robbins chains.

Industry:	Food Retail
Ownership:	Privately Held
Revenue:	$ 32 billion +
Stores:	32,600 +

Background

In 2017, Arby's Restaurants Group (renamed Inspire Brands in 2017), experienced significant company growth through the acquisition of other restaurant brands including Bufalo Wild Wings, Sonic, Baskin-Robbins and Dunkin Donuts.

Goal

In order to support company growth, Inspire Brands' goal was to centralize and automate treasury operations, across its restaurant brands. Treasury automation includes cash management, payments, store banking and capital markets activities.

Action

Inspire Brands implemented ATOM, specifically:

- ✓ ATOM Banking, including fees, stores and accounts management
- ✓ ATOM Cash Management, including cash positioning and forecasting
- ✓ ATOM Payments across its entire banking network
- ✓ ATOM Capital Markets, to manage its debt, including its credit facility

Results

Upon completion of the project, Inspire Brands achieved its vision of:

- ✓ Creating a highly automated treasury across its franchises and locations
- ✓ Integrating all treasury processes, including bank account management (incl. fee analysis), liquidity, payments, debt & facilities
- ✓ Significantly improving its visibility and control of enterprise cash, bank accounts and bank fees, and capital markets automation
